FOUR LIVES LOST IN SEAPLANE WRECK

Rescue Effected by Lifeboat from Passing Steamer

Key West, Fla.—The Henry M. Flagler has arrived here with the five survivors of the seaplane Columbus, which was wrecked and sunk twenty-one miles northwest of Havana, carrying four of its passengers to their death.

List of Dead

Those who lost their lives were:

Edwin F. Atkins, Jr., 30, New York, capitalist; Miss Grace McDonald, New York, nurse; Edward F. Atkins III, 5 years; David Atkins, 3 years.

Mrs. Atkins, Pilot W. E. Miller, Miss Julia Haverty of New York, Otto Abrams of New York and the mechanician, Harold Thompson, were rescued.

Captain John Albury of the ferry boat Flagler saw the seaplane fall when he was about three-fourths of a mile distant, and immediately turned his ship towards it.

The seas were running high, and several attempts had to be made before a lifeboat could be landed.

Atkins and Miss McDonald were swept off the wreckage to which they were clinging, before the lifeboat could reach them.

The two children, who were asleep in the cabin, are believed to have been killed instantly.

An effort will be made to recover the bodies of the victims, but the part of the sea where the disaster occured is infested with sharks, and little hope was held out that a recovery would be possible.

Atkins, who was spending the winter in Cuba, came to Key West to join Mrs. Atkins, who had just arrived from Boston. The plane was on its regular daily voyage to Cuba.

BANDITS MAKE BIG HAUL

Loot Secured by Six Oakland Bandits Estimated at $50,000

Oakland—With good descriptions of the six bandits who held up 200 well-to-do and socially prominent patrons of the White Lunch Pergola, a suburban resort of Oakland, securing loot estimated at $50,000, and the assurance of Manager Fred Hamintree that he can identify any or all of them, the police are prosecuting a determined search for the desperadoes. According to accounts given, the bandits kept the patrons covered with guns for more than an hour and a half, during which time a scuffle occurred in which one man was shot, though not seriously, and others injured, and were in no way deterred from boldly carrying out their design before coolly making their departure.

Every person in the dining hall was thoroughly searched and everything of value was taken.

Sugar bowls and coffee cups were explored, tablecloths pulled from tables, carpets pulled up and chairs overturned in the search for valuables.

After the guests in the dining room had been robbed, they were left under guard while several of the robbers forced the manager into the private office of the Pergola and compelled him to open the safe at the point of the revolver. More than $1,000 in cash and negotiable paper was secured in this manner.

SALT WORKS RAZED BY FIRE

Alvarado Plant Was One of the Largest in the World

Oakland—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the plant of the California Salt Company, located on the bay shore about a mile northwest of Alvarado, in Alameda county, causing damage estimated at more than $300,000. The plant was declared to be one of the largest in the world.

Buildings and machinery, huge storage houses and tanks containing 16,000 gallons of oil were destroyed.

The blaze was fought by a bucket brigade established among approximately fifty townspeople of Alvarado and a crew of forty Japanese from nearby ships. Lack of fire-fighting apparatus seriously hindered her efforts to combat the raging flames.

L. A. JAIL BREAK BALKED

Negro Prisoner Found to Have Master Key

Los Angeles—Delivery of all the prisoners in Lincoln Heights jail came near being accomplished, it was learned, when police tried to discover how Austin Bottles, a negro prisoner, came into possession of a master key to all the jail padlocks. Bottles was about to release a tank full of narcotic prisoners, it was declared, when the key was found in his pocket.

LIGHTNING HITS GAS TANKS

Beaumont, Tex.—The Magnolia Refining Company suffered more than a half-million-dollar loss here when lightning struck two tanks, containing 195,000 barrels of gasoline and destroyed them. By pumping, the refinery was able to save 18,000 barrels of the product.

GERMANY IS GIVEN FORTNIGHT'S GRACE

Time Extension on Indemnity Installment which is Due

Paris—The inter-allied reparations commission has given Germany a fortnight's grace to pay the 500,000,000 gold marks indemnity installment due this week. In the meantime, France will draw up new conditions upon which she will consent to an indemnity moratorium for Germany.

Members of the cabinet are hopeful that in the next two weeks Germany will in some way find the 500,000,000 gold marks that are due. This is the first of the quarterly payments to fall due since the expiration of the partial moratorium granted under the so-called Brussels plan.

The reparations commission has received a note from the German government signifying its intention to suspend payment of money and in kind because of the occupation of the Ruhr, which, it says, it considers to be a violation of the Versailles treaty.

Essen—France, it is learned here, is planning to further occupy the Ruhr region in reprisal for German's "passive resistance" acts of sabotage, and continuous threats of strikes.

French columns are now encircling Bochum, center of the coke industry and stronghold of wealthy German industrialists. Troops are also moving north toward Kupperdreh and Niederwenigern. The city of Hattigen has already been occupied.

MOURNER SEEKS DEATH

Death of Son Leads Woman To Cut Throat

San Francisco—Mrs. Annie Cauffet, 42, attempted suicide by cutting her throat with a knife while suffering from a fit of despondency after the death and burial last week of her 9-year-old son. She is lying in the French hospital in a serious condition.

About a week ago the child was stricken with an illness which the mother thought was only slight, and failed to summon a physician. This illness developed into diphtheria and the boy died after a few days. Feeling responsible for his death through the fact that she did not secure medical aid at first, Mrs. Cauffet tried to take her own life.

SUSPECTED SLAYER SOUGHT

Los Angeles—Police have launched a search for William Dowdy of Roanoke, Va., who is under suspicion in connection with the murder of his brother, Walter Dowdy, near Phoenix, Ariz.

The two brothers were en route to Los Angeles in an automobile according to meager information sent the local authorities. Walter Dowdy was found murdered on December 21, last, and his brother William has not been seen since.

SNOWSTORM IN NEW YORK

New York—Snow fell Monday to a depth varying from six to eight inches. Surface and vehicular transportation was interfered with and trains delayed. A force of 6000 shovelers began digging the city out.

BODY FOUND HANGING

San Jose—The body of an unidentified man, about 65 years old, was found hanging by a rope from a sign post here, opposite the Coroner's office. The body had been dead some time when discovered. The man was seen by residents in the vicinity of the Coroner's office several hours previous.

GRANGE GIVES GOOD PROGRAM

On account of sickness, Mr. H. G. Keesling was not able to be at grange last Tuesday evening, but Mrs. Keesling read a very interesting paper he had prepared for the Lecturer's hour.

Miss Bernice Bogert rendered two fine musical selections on the violin accompanied by Miss Miriam Skiff, on the piano.

Mr. J. B. Knaak gave a splendid talk on Russia. He said that in considering the present Russia we should remember that the great mass of the people were slaves down to within a half century or so. Under this condition of slavery the masters were absolute owners of the people under them just the same as we own the cattle or chickens, and at the slightest offence the head of the subject was cut off with no more question of right than one cuts off the head of a chicken today. The common people were abused in the most shameful manner. They so feared their masters that they dropped upon their knees with their faces to the ground when in their presence. After the emancipation, conditions may have improved some, but they continued to be oppressed by the government officials in many ways. There are one hundred and fifty million people in Russia who can neither read nor write and if today these people are sometimes brutal in their treatment of those who formerly ruled over them it is not much to be wondered at. We sometimes complain of our own government and we often have just cause to complain and criticize, and should do so, but when compared with many other governments as he has had an opportunity to do, we have many reasons to be thankful that we live under a government where we are free to do about as we please so long as we do not interfere with the rights of others. He said he was glad to be a citizen of the United States.

Following Mr. Knaak's talk was a solo by Miss Stella Levistion, "Deserted", accompanied by Irma Young on the piano. She responded to an encore with "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling", all of which was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

The new officers for 1923 were all in their places as follows: Master, H. V. Archibald; Overseer, Louis Shelley; Lecturer, Mrs. Ida Clendening; Steward, A. C. Rae; Assistant Steward, J. B. Knaak; Chaplain, Mrs. Mary Parkhill; Treasurer, F. S. Newcomb; Secretary, Mrs. Edna F. Keesling; Gatekeeper, S. N. Hedegard; Ceres, Mrs. Bessie Young; Pomona, Mrs. Ada Butts; Flora, Mrs. L. A. Rae; L. A. S., Mrs. Emma Knaak; Organist, Mrs. Geo. Whitney.

While the patrons of the store regret the departure of Mr. Lawrence, they will be glad that Mr. Tucker is to remain.

The lot on South Third Street where Mr. Lawrence had designed to build in the spring and upon which he had erected a large garage was bought by Mr. Stooksberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have made many friends here during their short residence, who wish them success wherever their new home may be.

Mr. Tucker is looking for a house in Campbell and we shall be glad to have them locate here if successful in their quest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralston Alison spent the forepart of the week in San Francisco. Mr. Alison transacted business and Mrs. Alison enjoyed a few days rest from the arduous library campaign.

VERY DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL FUNCTION

One of the delightful social events of the winter was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stray on Saturday evening.

Their spacious home was attractively decorated with red carnations and ferns which lent a note of cheer to the wintry evening.

A whist drive occupied the earlier hours of the evening, three games played at one sitting with a pivoting of partners. One table of Mah Jong was also a center of attraction. Prizes were awarded the highest score at each table, and all were clever selections from Chinese shops in San Francisco, quaint incense burners, toys, and the like.

Place cards for the luncheon were in keeping with the prizes—Japanese women carrying tiny paper parasols that opened.

Dancing for a short time completed the evening's pleasure and the two score of guests made their adieus with many expressions of pleasure for the happy evening, and for the chance to meet Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Day, who were house guests of the host and hostess. Edward Day and George Stray were also down from Stanford for the occasion.

JUNIOR CLASS IS ENTERTAINED

The Junior Class of the C. U. H. S. held one of its class parties on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Wendt, San Jose. Mrs. Wendt is a sister of Miss Boesch, the class adviser, and most graciously opened her home for the occasion.

All of the faculty with wives and husbands were included, who together with a good sized class made a very jolly party.

The committees on entertainment and refreshments had expended time and care in preparing their parts of the evening's enjoyment. The games and stunts planned were unique and of a type to interest and include all present, so that every one had a good time.

The refreshments were dainty but sumptuous, ice cream, topped with raspberry syrup and whipped cream, served with French pastry.

The class is highly appreciative of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Wendt, and of the material assistance of Miss Boesch in making their party so successful.

ANOTHER BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

Changes in the business firms of Campbell are coming thick and fast these days. This week L. Genasci & Son have sold their stock and fixtures and leased their store building to Horace Lea, the transaction being made thru the office of S. N. Hedegard.

Mr. Lea comes here from Santa Clara and as soon as he can find a place, will bring his family here to live.

The business will be conducted along present lines until the new owner becomes a little more acquainted but he plans to enlarge the dry goods department in the spring. It will be a strictly cash store with town deliveries.

Mr. Genasci has carried on a general merchandising business here since 1906, to which his son, Ed, and himself have added an electrical wiring and fixture department. Mr. Genasci contemplates retiring from active business and for the present Ed will continue his electrical work, of which he has several jobs on hand.

We bespeak for Mr. Lea a continuance of the patronage accorded the retiring firm and a share of the new business, and we shall welcome them as residents when they can come here to live.

Mrs. R. H. Crane, of Santa Rosa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Driesback.

MRS. THOMPSON ANSWERS CALL

Mrs. Minnie H. Thompson, of South Central Avenue, passed away the afternoon of January 15. Mrs. Thompson had been in very poor health for a number of months, and was an extremely frail woman.

The deceased was only forty-seven years of age, a native of St. Charles, Mo. The family lived in Los Gatos for two years before coming to Campbell about three years ago.

The immediate family left to mourn their great loss are the husband, John T. Thompson, and three daughters, two of high school age, Viola and Mary, and one younger.

Funeral services were held by the Melvin Funeral Parlors in Los Gatos, Wednesday and the body was taken to Dos Palos for interment. The services were in charge of the pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of San Jose.

The death of a mother is always hard, but doubly so when the children are still in the home, and Mr. Thompson and daughters have every sympathy in their sorrow.

P. O. BUSINESS GROWS

Carrier Yeager reports ten new patrons on the Campbell rural route since January 1. One of the first indications of the growth and development of a community is noted in the postoffice. An increase of ten rural patrons in a half month is a good many.

The volume of mail passing thru the local office and the business of the office are increasing rapidly. The number of town patrons is constantly growing and the financial end of the office demands more and more time.

This is a community of writers and readers and the amount of mail is greater in proportion to the number served than is true in many offices of this class.

LOCAL BOY ON TEAM

The Santa Clara University basketball squad for the season has been chosen, ten out of twenty-five aspirants. All twenty-five were given try outs in two games with the San Jose "Y' team and selections made from the showing of the various players.

Raymond Hulsman was chosen as one of the four forwards and we are justly proud of the fact. Quoting from the somewhat lengthy account given in the Sunday Mercury we read:—

"The fourth forward is Roy Hulsman, a Campbell high school boy. He turned out for the Mission team last season, but he didn't land on the select ten, although he showed plenty of basketball talent. However, he showed much improvement this year and so he was picked by Coach Aurrecoechea."

Concerning Indorsement of Checks

(Talk No. 2 on Good Form in Banking)

Good habits in all banking details will help forward your business transactions to the desired end. With indorsemehts, especially, be careful for your own sake.

George Savetyme is a fine young fellow. Although occasionally a little hasty, a trifle too much inclined to "cut the corners," he is nevertheless well liked and considered promising. He is certainly good-natured. How he does joke the clerks in the home bank when they try to "call him down" for a small error of some kind!

Well, George, who is ambitious, had the chance of a lifetime to buy a paying business that just suited him. Another man wanted it too; but George, having scraped together all the money he could, was ahead and gave a check in full; and he was so tickled with himself that he went off to celebrate with a week of duck shooting. When he got back the business was in the hands of the other man. Just before he left, George had deposited a check with a misspelled indorsement. Because this check had failed to go through, his bank account was short of his own check in payment for the business. At present he is waiting for another "chance of a lifetime." Incidentally, he is strong now-a-days for proper indorsements.

When accepting a check drawn in favor of the one who presents it, see that the indorsement on the back agrees with the name on the "pay to" line on the face—given name, or initials the same; last name the same—exactly. When indorsing your own paper, be equally careful. It is a rule of good banking form that helps every day in small affairs, and some day a fortune may turn on it.

We Are Serving You Better and Better

[] Experience and more experience—it takes all of that to make a good grocer. But experience only isn't enough. It takes experience plus study—study and more study—to make a food merchant of the "better and better kind.

[] "FINEST STORE IN MY TERRITORY."—That is what traveling salesmen say of "Blaine's." Thanks! However, we've put our high class foods within the protection of brick walls and cement floors for something more than looks. Rats and mice—spreaders of disease, such as the bubonic plague—can't gnaw into this store. This freedom from vermin is a big asset, deserving of more than a casual remark. It's worth shouting about.

[] FIFTEEN YEARS OF EXPERIENCE AND STUDY are back of BLAINE'S STEEL-CUT COFFEE. The best machines for steel-cutting and cleaning high grade hard coffees cost a few thousands of dollars, too much for the individual grocer. Hence the work is best done at the factory. But, after being cut, the coffee loses flavor rapidly. So it's a good idea to use air-tight cans. But the cans cost about 10 cents each; so that makes the coffee come high. If fresh from the roaster weekly, however, the coffee doesn't particularly need a can. That's why Blaine's coffee is only 38c.

[] THAT DELICIOUS SLICED BACON has dropped to 60c. And by the way, bacon sliced so nicely, without the rind, also requires expensive machinery. But sliced at the factory, this way, it won't keep long. We couldn't handle it successfully except as we do, having it come twice a week, Tuesday and Friday, and selling it out in a day or two. Remember the days. And don't feel cross if we are out. Try again.

[] BUTTER, VITAMINES AND GROWING CHILDREN—"My neighbor just told me that you said oleo isn't good for growing children. Is that so?" Well, we're glad you asked that. Although nut margarines are excellent for adults, Dr. Wiley and other authorities tell us that all such vegetable oils lack vitamines and a certain growth element found in butter fat. Sam Greene, founder of the Isleton Butter Co., and now manager of the California Dairy Council, has just sent a lot of good literature on this very subject. Nucoa can be safely used by the grown-ups of the family; but fresh, sweet butter, like Isleton, is best for the kiddies.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NOTES

There have been few "doings" at the school this week.

The game last Thursday with Santa Clara was a disappointment. The Santa Clara boys had been ahead for three quarters but at the last quarter our boys woke up and made a favorable score—9-7 in Santa Clara's favor.

The girls were defeated also, the score totaling 8-5.

This week is Thrift Weeks, as you all probably know. Next Friday we are going to have a special program in the Assembly Hall and there will be a speaker.

—E. H. M.

The board of supervisors of Santa Clara county, headed by Chairman John Roll, has taken stock of the money in charge of County Treasurer E. W. Conant, finding that the county's funds total at the present time $2,800,828.60. This is a large increase over the amount of money on hand in the county treasury at the opening of 1922, the amount then being $2,185,298.75. The increase is largely due to the fact that many school districts have voted bonds for school building purposes, the bonds having been sold but the money having not yet been put to use. Most of the county's money is in various banks, where it draws interest.

The time has been set for 6:30 P. M.

FOOD SALE

Intermediate C. E.'s will hold a food sale Saturday morning at the Campbell Market. Bring contributions early.

W. C. T. U.

Campbell's Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. S. Newcomb. Following the usual devotional exercises and roll call a communication was read from Mr. Arnott and family expressing thanks for flowers and tokens of sympathy in their recent bereavment.

Greetings were also received from former members who retain interest in Campbell union. The treasurer's report was read and placed on file. Lacking money in the treasury with which to pay the $25.00 pledge to the Library Fund, it was voted to hold a food sale on Saturday, February 3rd, and contributors were urged to get their contributions in early, the sale to be held as usual at Mr. Gilson's meat shop.

It was suggested that members solicit contributions from other organizations which have been helped in their food sales by the W. C. T. U. During the program some of the following reasons were given for wishing to belong to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union: "Because it is distictly an organization for Home Protection, its best interests and the welfare of future generations; because it means to its members growth in Christian experience and service; because it had a large part in the education of public sentiment which resulted in State and National Prohibition; because it fights for prohibition of the liquor and opium traffic, also other vices which often hinder the work of Christian missionaries in all lands; because the forces of unrighteousness are united to set aside the Eighteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution or nullify its good effects by non-enforcement; because the work of great moral reforms cannot be done by the church alone but must be aided by legislative, political, educational and scientific methods; because the well-defined plans for Americanization, Social Morality, and Child Welfare compel my respect and demand my support. To me the appeal of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is irresistable."

At the close of the program the spirit of good cheer was increased by the social hour, during which the hostess served some especially fine apples.

PRUNE TONNAGE OF ASSOCIATION BIGGEST IN YEARS

With deliveries still dribbling in from practically all producing districts, the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association announces that it already has received more than 143,000,000 pounds of prunes of the 1922 crop from its members.

This is the largest tonnage of prunes which the association has received in its six years of operation with the exception of the season of 1920. Though the state's tonnage is considerably less than in 1921, the association this year has received from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 pounds more prunes than it did two years ago. The state tonnage this year is estimated at about 180,000,000 pounds.

In giving out the figures, H. G. Coykendall, general manager of the association, says that the organization is in a stronger marketing position than it has been at any other time since its formation in 1917.

So tremendous has been the demand from all parts of the country for the new two-pound carton of prunes that the association's carton packing plant in San Jose has been working on a 16-hour a day basis ever since September 1, in an effort to catch up with the back orders. This is the first season in the history of the California prune industry that any organization has attempted to pack prunes in pasteboard cartons on a large scale.

JURIST PREPARES BILL REGULATING PROBATION CASES

Superior Judge J. R. Welch of the Santa Clara county superior court is engaged in the preparation of a bill giving judges greater latitude in handling cases than they are now entitled to. The bill, upon its completion, will be given to a member of the Santa Clara county delegation to father it and introduce it at a session of the legislature.

In a statement Judge Welch said:

"As the law now stands, the judges must either send a person to prison or put him on probation. What I am after is to have the privilege of fining or sending a guilty person to jail. I believe that when a person has been an expense to the state on account of his trial he should be fined. If the bill I am now working on becomes a law, I believe it will save the state a lot of money. If the power of the probation judge is less restricted, as I intend to make it, it is my opinion that we will have even more prisoners making good on probation than now. And our records now in that regard are not half bad."
